

Destination Imagination

Meeting 3: December 11, 2007

1. Everyone introduces themselves. Go over “what do I like”.
2. Team Building Game 1: Gift Wrapping. Break up into two groups, decided by Paul. Each group will have a gift to wrap. The “wrapper” will be blindfolded and his or her teammates will have to help wrap, but cannot touch the wrapper in any way, they can only use their words to help guide.
3. Acting and Team Building Game: Our First Play. Again, we’ll break up into two groups, decided by Paul. The goal is to put on a play. We will have props: masks. The theme of the play involves a zoo and what happens there. There will be three actors in each play: a zookeeper, an animal, and a visitor. The teams will have a meeting to decide what they are going to do for their masks and play. Then they will make their masks. They will get to practice their play. Then put on the play.
4. Fun Game: Story One Word at a Time. If we have time, we will do what we did last week. Sit in a circle and tell a story one word at a time. Hopefully we’ll be able to do this when the parents come.

Note to parents:

We received word from Sally Norton, organizer of Stow’s DI, that the registration fee is going to be $70. Checks should be made out to “Friends of Stow DI” and will be collected next week.

I need a contact number to be able to get in touch in case of emergency while I have responsibility for your kids. If it’s different than your home number, please provide that next week or email it to me at trunfio@mac.com

Next week will be our last meeting of the year. Tuesday December 18th 4pm.

Our next meeting after that will be January 8th.
